

DUMPED INTO A RAILWAY FILL

Eight Men Seriously Injured on Janesville & S. E., Near Tioga.

THINK I WILL DIE

Roadmaster W. W. Bond Was Hurt Badly About the Head, and Cannot Live.

WAS A BAD ACCIDENT

An accident which will result in the death of at least one man and seriously injured seven others occurred this morning at 10:45 o'clock on the Janesville and Southeastern branch of the C. M. & St. P. R. R. one mile east of Tioga, a station seventeen miles east of Janesville.

The section crew under the supervision of W. W. Bond of Chicago, road master and H. E. Carrell of Chicago train master, were unloading a dump car of gravel on a curve in the road, where there is a thirty-foot fill rip-rapped with stones.

At the time of the accident there were in the car, Road Master Bond, Foreman John Coakley of Beloit and six men. The car stood on a slant being on a curve and for some reason, not explained the upper side of the car was unloaded first leaving the lower side of the car with a load in it. This made the car top heavy and without an instant's warning it tipped over down the dump.

Thrown into the Air
The eight men in the car were thrown into the air like they had been standing on spring boards and landed in all sorts of positions on the stones that formed the bank of the dump. At first it was thought that several of them were dead, but they gradually came to and it was found that only two of them were in immediate danger.

W. W. Bond, the road master, was the worst hurt. He struck on the back of his head and sustained a bad fracture of the skull. When picked up he was still unconscious and large quantities of blood oozed from his wounds.

Larry Connors Unconscious
Larry Connors was also unconscious when picked up. He was thrown from the car and struck on his side and had some of his ribs crushed in by the sharp stones as well as being badly hurt about the head and other parts of the body.

The balance of the men were able to help themselves a little except those who had injuries to their lower limbs.
H. E. Carrell, the train master at once took charge of the wreck and had an engine hatched onto a caboose and sent to Walworth 9 miles away for medical assistance. The train made a record breaking run and soon had two doctors on the scene. They fixed the injured men up as well as possible and put them on the caboose and started for Janesville where they might have first-class medical assistance.

Those Injured
The injured are:

W. W. Bond of Chicago, road master, skull crushed; will die; taken to Palmer hospital.

Larry Connors, Avalon, ribs broken, head cut and injured internally; taken to Mrs. Henderson's hospital.

Foreman John Coakley, Beloit; cut about head, body bruised; went to his home in Beloit.

Alva Rokenbrodt, Tioga; cut about the head and bruised; not dangerous; taken to Palmer hospital.

Richard Donahue, Darien; cut about head and body.

Andy Higgins, Avalon; cut in back of head and about back.

BISHOP JOYCE SET TEARS RUNNING: CHURCHES' DEMAND FOR YOUNG MEN

Methodist Bishop Notes the Strange Conditions He Finds in Wisconsin--Some of the Appointments.

Ripon, Wis., Oct. 16.—The Wisconsin conference of the Methodist Episcopal church closed here yesterday morning about ten o'clock with the reading of the appointments by Bishop Joyce. Bishop Joyce set the tears to running in his prayer and address before the reading of the minutes. He prayed that the ministers might win 5,000 converts during the year. He said that the cabinet had held twelve sessions and that last night it was 2:30 a. m. before he went to bed and he was up at 5:30 studying and working over the appointments. He found that the ministers were growing in qualifications more rapidly than the churches. He was surprised to find so many churches anxious to reduce the salaries that they paid their pastors.

He also noted a strange condition he found in Wisconsin. There was almost a frenzy in the demand of the churches for young men. He had not found it so anywhere else. He was glad to say that as far as he knew the young men in the conference were not trying to supplant the old ones. "Age is not a question of years, but of efficiency," he said. The

Will Finley, Antigo, Wis.; cut in head and leg injured.
Mike Shea, of Chicago; cut about head and back injured.

The News in This City

When the message was received in this city, telling of the accident, it was reported that there had been a collision and as the last train left Janesville for Chicago at 10:30 everyone thought it was the passenger train that had been wrecked. People who had friends and relatives on the train kept the telephone wires hot asking the agents, Johnson and Metzger, for particulars.

As soon as possible, Dr. Joe Whiting, the company's surgeon gathered all the doctors he could get together and had them at the station when the special came in. He also called the patrol wagon and the West Side hose wagon for use in carrying the wounded to the hospital.

It was found on the arrival of the train that the report of the injuries sustained by the men had been exaggerated and there was no need for so many doctors.

The two patrol wagons going to the station attracted a large crowd and it was with difficulty that the men with the stretchers could get through. Some of the men had their injuries attended to at the station and were taken to the Windsor hotel instead of the hospital.

CAPT. COOK AGAIN ON WITNESS STAND

Corrects and Confirms Some Testimony Given Yesterday in Schley Court of Inquiry.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Capt. Cook was called to the stand when the Schley court opened this morning to correct his testimony. Hanna directed his attention to the statement that the Brooklyn's engines were uncoupled on July 3 by order of Sampson. Cook said the statement was correct and that the order was contained in the bulletin issued by Sampson. Cook said the squadron could have proceeded to Santiago from Clonfuegos with much greater speed, had not the weather and the Eagle's slow progress, added to the retrograde movement, prevented.

The Lieut. Commander also corrected his testimony. In answer to a question he denied that he had said: "For God's sake don't discourage him. It was all we could do to work him up to it."

SELLING LIQUORS WITHOUT LICENSE

The Case of the Virqua Club Has Been Appealed to the State Supreme Court.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 16.(Special)—Application was made to the supreme court for an alternative writ of prohibition to prevent further liquor selling without license. Virqua voted no license last spring and the liquor sellers did not have to go dry. The grand lodge of Odd Fellows at Virqua last week and the visitors it is said at the suggestion of the Mayor found entertainment at the club. After they were gone however, four complaints were made and Justice Holland summoned witnesses for an inquiry. Steward Mills and Secretary Towold of the club refused to produce their books and Mills was sent to jail for contempt of court. The writ is asked for to prevent further proceedings until a hearing can be had by the supreme court the contention being that a justice of the peace has no power to hold inquisitorial proceedings in excise cases.

Sofia, Oct. 15.—Mme. Talika, kidnapped with Miss Stone, has written a letter to her parents, notifying them that she has given birth to a child and both are doing well.

ELECTRIC CHAIR HAS NO TERRORS; CZOLGOSZ FEARS THE PEOPLE

Assassin Believes They Would Kill Him if They Could Get at Him--Hundreds of Letters and Packages Sent to Murderer Do Not Reach Him.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Supt. Cornelius V. Collins will send a request to Secretary of State Hay to designate an official representative of the government to be present at the electrocution of Leon F. Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley. Only twenty-six witnesses will be present at the chamber of death when the sentence is executed.

Warden Mead of Auburn prison has sent to Supt. Collins the requests he has received for permission to attend the electrocution, over 1,000 in all. The law will limit the number of witnesses and the superintendent will decide who the witnesses shall be.

It was stated at the state department of prisons today that statements to the effect that Czolgosz is in a continuous state of collapse and that he breaks down and weeps every time anything is said to him concerning the electrocution are false. Supt. Collins had a talk with the condemned man some days ago and he said at that time that he knew he had to die. He expressed no fear as to the electrocution, but said that he would not care to go outside of the prison, for he believed that the people would kill him.

Since his confinement at Auburn prison several thousand letters have been received for him at the prison, as well as a large number of express packages containing flowers and fruit. The letters, flowers and fruit have never reached the condemned man. The flowers and fruit, it is learned, have been sent by Christian societies, as have a large number of letters consoling him in his last moments. Other letters have come from cranks who have written about the species of torture to which they would put him if they had the execution of justice in his case. It is stated, however, that it would be a matter of surprise if the names of senders of fruit and flowers were to be made public.

The state prison department has pursued a uniform policy in regard to Czolgosz. An effort has been made to prevent the murderer gaining any notoriety while awaiting death and to surround him by as perfect an isolation from the world as possible.

CHANDLER THE MAN FOR LONG'S PLACE

President May Put Former Secretary of the Navy in Office--Has a Very Good Record.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Former Senator William E. Chandler of New Hampshire may succeed John D. Long as secretary of the navy. Mr. Chandler was secretary of the navy under President Arthur and made a record which has been equalled by only one of his successors—William C. Whitney, who was president Cleveland's first secretary of the navy.

Mr. Chandler is chairman of the Spanish treaty claims commission, to which position he was appointed by the late President McKinley after the close of the war.

Senators Lodge and Frye and other close personal and political friends of the president have strongly urged Mr. Chandler's selection as secretary of the navy upon the ground that he is one of the few men in the country who have the necessary experience and courage to take up and deal with the extraordinary conditions that exist in that department.

LIPTON TO BUILD SHAMROCK III. PLUCKY YACHTSMAN WILL NOT WAIT

Guest at a Banquet in Chicago--Enthusiastic Reception and Loving Cup Given Him Last Night.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Sir Thomas Lipton will build the Shamrock III. Undaunted by two defeats, the plucky Irishman will construct another yacht and make his third challenge to the America cup. The announcement is made on one condition—that no patriotic countryman anticipates the owner and builder of Shamrock I. and Shamrock II.

After Sir Thomas had seen 300 of his friends and admirers drink to the health of King Edward at the banquet given for him by the Chicago Athletic association last night, and after he had proposed and drank a toast to President Theodore Roosevelt he stood bowing to his enthusiastic admirers. Still standing, he heard them sing "God Save the King," listened to the stirring notes of "Columbia" and the humming of "Dixie."

When the songs had been hushed and another toast in his honor had been drunk he was introduced—a formally entirely unnecessary then—and again he bowed his thanks for the hearty greeting. After he thanked America and Chicago for the many favors and the square treatment he had received, the persistent yachtman in a quaint way declared: "I have already succeeded in losing some of the balls with which the cup is nailed down."

These present anticipated what was to follow. They broke out in cheers for Sir Thomas. They fol-

CLUB WOMEN IN MADISON TODAY

Meeting of the State Federation Attended by Three Hundred

PROMINENT LADIES

Urgent Appeal to Support the Trade Label of the State League.

PROGRAM FOR TODAY

Madison, Wis., Oct. 16.—The fifth annual convention of the Wisconsin State Federation of Women's clubs opened here at ten o'clock this morning with an attendance of fully 300 delegates.

Among some of the prominent women who elbowed their way through the jam at the Park Hotel this morning were: Mrs. H. M. Youmans, president of the federation; Mrs. Thomas H. Brown of Milwaukee, recording secretary; Mrs. Lillian Page Allen of Madison, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Morris of Berlin, state secretary of the general federation; Mrs. David G. Whyte of La Crosse, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William H. Crosby of Racine, auditor; Mrs. H. M. LaFollette, wife of the governor.

Urges Support of Women

The board of directors of the consumers' league of Wisconsin held an executive meeting last night and decided to push its work as vigorously as possible. It especially decided to issue large quantities of literature setting forth the purposes of the organization and urging women generally to support it. The principal purpose of the league is to persuade all women to buy only such goods as bear the label of the league. The label is a guarantee that the manufacturer has complied with all the requirements of the league respecting sanitary conditions and consideration for employees.

Avoid Color Line Discussion
In discussing some of the questions to come before the present convention of the federation President Mrs. Youmans said that she considered that of enjoying a chair in democratic science at the Milwaukee Downer college one of the most important. She would not say whether she endorsed the proposition or not, but admitted that if the federation attempted to carry out the project it would mean that the organization would be compelled to abandon temporarily at least much of its work along other lines. The entire question, she said, was one that the federation should carefully consider before committing itself.

Welcomed by Mrs. La Follette
Owing to the illness of former President C. K. Adams, Mrs. R. M. La Follette welcomed the delegates and the usual preliminaries of organization followed.

Today's Program
The afternoon program will include the following address, report and vocal numbers: "What Club Women May Do for Our Country Schools," Dr. J. W. Stearns, University of Wisconsin; report of library committee, Mrs. Reuben G. Thwaites; report of federation librarian, Miss L. E. Stearns; vocal solo (A) "All Soul's Day," Lassen; (B) "Gay Little Dandelion," Chadwick; Mrs. W. D. Hiestand, Madison; "What Clubs Can Do for Our Traveling Library," F. A. Hutchins, traveling library commission;

MAY SECURE PITTSBURGH ORCHESTRA; MUSIC-LOVERS DESIRE THE CONCERT

First Meeting of the Musical-Literary Society Last Evening—Fine Program Was Rendered.

The first meeting of the Musical-Literary society for the season of 1901-1902 was held at the Christ church parish house last evening. The program was an enjoyable year of study and deep interest in the society for the coming year are especially good. There were about one hundred members of the society present last evening and thirty-two new members were admitted to the privileges of the club. Of this number fifteen are active members and seventeen are associate members.

At the opening of the meeting John G. Rexford, the president of the society, made a few brief remarks on the value of the organization to the city and urged that heartier financial support be given it in the future. While finances were a secondary consideration, still enough people ought to be sufficiently interested in the work it is doing for the culture of the city to pay their annual dues, so that a least the running expenses of the society would be provided for. Last year the expenses were twice the receipts from dues and over $50 had to be taken from the surplus fund which fortunately the society had on hand from concerts of former years. Last year the society started out with a surplus of nearly $170. This year the money on hand is only a little over $110. The fine programs which are given throughout the winter simply as entertainments, than the fee of membership and new members will be gladly welcomed to the society.

The matter of securing the Pittsburgh orchestra, an organization of sixty musicians under the direction of Victor Herbert, for a concert in this city on Wednesday evening, December 11, was brought up for discussion. The manager of the orchestra will bring the concert here to be given under the auspices of the Musical-Literary society, if the society will guarantee a certain number of tickets at $1 each. The society has no financial interest in the matter and the action which it is taking is purely disinterested. It is anxious to secure such a fine concert for this city but did not feel like pledging itself to pay a large guarantee. It was finally decided to leave a subscription list at some central place for a day or so and see whether the people care enough for fine music to support such an orchestral concert.

The business of the meeting being transacted, Mrs. J. F. Sweeney, chairman of the program committee, took charge of the meeting. The program was a miscellaneous one and was thoroughly delightful in every Promotion for W. H. Whalen.

W. H. Whalen, formerly foreman of the Northwestern shops in this city, was yesterday appointed superintendent of the Northwestern road. His territory is from Janesville to Green Bay and from Sheboygan to Marshfield. Mr. Whalen's rise in the service has been rapid and well merited. Two years ago he was foreman of the Northwestern shops in this city and was promoted to the position of master mechanic of the Madison division with headquarters at Baraboo. A year ago he was made assistant superintendent of the Wisconsin division, with headquarters at Oshkosh. His many friends in this city extend their congratulations in his good fortune. Mr. J. J. O'Brien will remain as assistant superintendent with his office and headquarters in this city.

NOTES OF THE FARM.

Don't go into winter quarters with more fowls than you can take proper care of.

Now is the proper time to repair that old hen house, because cold, bleak winter is close at hand. It is a very easy matter to tell the hen profitable to keep. She has a red, highly colored comb and is full of activity and life. And if any of your flock appear lousy, mope around, they are the ones to get rid of, as they take up valuable room and feed, which will keep a profitable one instead.

There is nothing so annoying to the poultry raiser as lice. A remedy which has been recommended is to take and make a torch of the following materials: Dissolve one-half pint of tar, one-half pint of turpentine in one-half gallon of kerosene in an open vessel, soak into this solution, corn cobs until they are thoroughly saturated, then take them out, sprinkle with all the sulphur that will adhere to them, go to the poultry house, ignite and smoke the roosts, walls, roof and crevices; and we can guarantee that your hennery will soon be minus those pests.

Another good remedy suggested in one of the institutes we attended last winter and that was to pour one barrel of kerosene over the building and light a match to it.

The best and most economical way to use manure is to spread it where wanted, after the hot weather is past and before the ground is frozen. So suggests one of our rural readers. Furthermore, he states that to spread frozen ground and snow there is too great a loss by washing and drying before it can be absorbed by the ground.

Many farmers in the territory we travel are taking time by the forelock and that is in fall plowing, and they can surely be commended in doing so, not only because it makes plant food already contained in the soil more available for next year's crops, but stores up much more rainfall as well as putting the land in better condition to withstand drought during the next season than if it had remained unplowed through the winter. Again, the land is ready for cultivation much earlier in the spring. This fact was brought to our notice in the town of Beloit by a farmer showing us two fields of corn, one had been plowed in the fall while the other had been broken up this spring and he estimated the yield to be fifteen bushels more to the acre in the field plowed in the fall than that plowed in the spring.

Farmers throughout the county have made mention of the fact that hog cholera is again prevalent. Now this is a subject which has been discussed, not only in the many institutes held throughout the state, and adjoining states, but in the experimental station, and much of it has been traced to the swill barrel. It is seldom or ever cleaned so that it soon becomes reeking with putrid, filthy matter and infected with countless millions of germs. Many of the so-called cases of hog cholera could be traced to the old swill barrel. This should be kept covered, and scalding water with an old broom, operated by elbow grease, will, in many instances, do away with disease among swine.

Vitality, nerves like steel, clear eyes, active brain, strength, health and happiness comes to those who take Rocky Mountain Tea, made by Madison Medicine Co. 35c. Smith's Pharmacy.

Fine Rattlesnake Skin.

Capt. W. T. Vankirk yesterday afternoon received a fine rattlesnake skin which was sent to him by William Cleveland, of Cleveland, Fla., a cousin of ex-President Cleveland, and a gentleman for whom the town in which he lives was named. Mr. Cleveland killed the snake the 5th of this month and had the skin tanned for Mr. Vankirk. It is six feet, ten inches long, ten inches around and has twelve rattles.

A Large Number of People From This Vicinity Attended the Dedication Exercises.

A large number of people from this vicinity attended the dedication of the H. A. Preuss Lutheran academy at Albion on Monday. About 1,000 people were present at the exercises. The buildings have been extensively repaired and fitted up in good shape, about $2,500 having been expended.

The exercises were elaborate and enjoyable. In the morning they were given in Norwegian, the dedication address being delivered by Rev. O. P. Vangsness, of Story City, Ia. The afternoon exercises were in English and there were several addresses among the speakers being the Rev. G. A. Gullion of Beloit, Professor J. Q. Emery of Albion, the Rev. L. Reque of Keyser. The musical part of the program was furnished by the Edgerton band, the McFarland band and a mixed chorus consisting of the Lutheran church choir of the vicinity. Over seventy students are enrolled. Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Aprons of the fact that the seat sale for Otis Skinner's magnificent production of "Francesca da Rimini," which is to be seen at the Myers Grand next Monday evening, opened at the People's drug store this morning. A little story which comes from St. Paul where Mr. Skinner has recently closed a most successful engagement, may be of interest to his admirers here. In one of the most impressive moments of the play when all was breathless and intense silence on the stage and in the audience, some would-be smart boy in the gallery profaned the scene by calling "Ah, cut it out" or words to that effect. The audience was shocked and startled, but Mr. Skinner was too much of an artist to permit it to spoil the effectiveness in his scene. Raising his head he looked reproachfully straight in the direction from which the voice had come and said quietly, but with mournful melody "Peace, peace, such sounds disturb even heaven."

It is certainly a wonderful genius which could, on the spur of the moment, prompt an action that not only administered a dignified rebuke but saved the scene and returned the audience to the spell and spirit of the play which had been so rudely disturbed.

One of the most charming promises which the dramatic season holds out is the coming of Mr. Tim Murphy in his latest success, "A Capital Comedy," which is to be seen at the Myers soon. This is a play of life in Washington by Paul Willatch, a writer who knows his topic well. It deals in an absorbing story with conditions which may be found in the national capital by an observing student who cares to ransack the nooks and crannies of human nature. Every element of the comedy is said to be gathered from real life. It is in a way a mosaic of incidents from human documents from both halves of a remarkable city. Every character has been made a type and the actors to be seen with Mr. Murphy have been selected because of their peculiar adaptability to the roles they play. All strata of life, social and official, are shown. There is the gay whirl of the smart set, and the dull grey monotony of the shoddy genteel; the senators of what has Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Eczema on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Blechfried, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary.

October 12th, 1901, will be a day long to be remembered in the hearts of all who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lester of Emerald Grove to celebrate with them their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester are natives of England, their birthplace being Holbeach, Lincolnshire, Eng. Mr. Lester came to this country in 1867, settling in Jefferson county, Wis.

Mrs. Lester followed with the children in 1870, where they have continued to make their home until three years ago when they left the farm and moved to Emerald Grove where they continue to reside. During their fifty years of wedded life their path has been strewn with their share of trials and trouble.

Six children have been born to them, one dying in infancy, another, the oldest son, being a victim of a threshing engine explosion, in Jefferson county in 1886; he with his two sons being killed. Five children, John and William Lester, and Mrs. Burr Armstrong, of Oakland, Wis., Mr. Robert Johnson, of Milwaukee and Mr. Charles Fitch of Emerald Grove were present, also eleven grandchildren who added greatly to the merriment of the occasion.

At 2:30 fifty persons, large and small, sat down to a very sumptuous dinner provided by the children and grandchildren and others present. During the dinner hour twenty-five dollars in gold was presented to them by the friends, also numerous other useful things were given, including a nice water set.

After dinner the bride of fifty years was happily surprised when the husband slipped on her finger a new gold wedding ring. The party then joined in singing McKinley's hymn, and after singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," the friends that lived near by, bade the aged couple adieu and Godspeed. In the evening parties from Janesville came and congratulated them. There were friends present from Chicago, Milwaukee, Jefferson, Shoplere and Cambridge.

EDUCATION OF THE NEGRO.

Booker T. Washington, principal of the Normal and Industrial Institute at Tuskegee, Alabama, is recognized as one of the most intelligent men in the south. Mr. Washington is devoting his life to the colored race, and he fully realizes that education is necessary as the foundation for development. In his last report he says of the work:

"During the present year 1253 students have been in attendance, and the average daily attendance has been 1010. About one-third have been young women and the remainder young men. The average age has been 18½, and none have been admitted under 14 years of age, and unless they have had some academic preparation. The students have come to us from twenty-nine states and territories, and from six foreign countries, including fourteen from Cuba and Porto Rico."

The total number receiving instruction is about 1500, a night school being maintained in the city, and a children's department on the grounds of the institution.

The course of study is intensely practical, including all branches of industry, and the graduates as well as those who are not able to take the entire course, enter life as intelligent, self-supporting citizens.

The expense for carrying on this great work is about $110,000 per year, an average of about $73.00 per scholar. The income from interest on endowment fund, scholarships and other sources, is $32,000 per year, and the balance is furnished by generous-hearted people, who are glad to lend a helping hand.

The wants of the institution are numerous. More buildings and better equipment are needed, and Mr. Washington invites donations of any amount, to aid in the work, which is in every way worthy of the most cordial support.

The race problem in the south has ever been a perplexing problem, and all sorts of theories are advanced, and remedies suggested. It is safe to say that Mr. Washington has discovered the correct solution, and while the process may be slow, and the work discouraging, yet results demonstrate that he is making no mistake.

In this work, which is in the broadest sense philanthropic, he is entitled, not only to encouragement, but to the most liberal support. He is a missionary on American soil, the representative of a race of American people, who through misfortune for which they are not responsible, are full of want and ignorance. This race inherited the rights of citizenship by birthright, in a single day, and the sacred right, while not fully appreciated, will never be taken away.

The missionary spirit is always commendable and misdirected zeal is seldom criticized. There are many people, however, who are wedded to the favorite maxim, "Charity begins at home." The logic is all right, but the disciples of this practical faith are not always zealous. The field of opportunity is sometimes difficult to discover, as indifference clouds the vision. If the home missionary advocates will turn their faces towards the south, and focus sight for half an hour on Tuskegee, they will discover a field white for the harvest where the laborers are all too few to gather the fruitage. They will also notice at the head of this great Christian industry, a man with pure white soul, and sanctified ambitions, bending every energy of a mind that is clear and divinely inspired, to the lifting up of a race that is full of want.

Booker T. Washington is the Moses of the colored race, devoting his life to massing forces in a warfare against ignorance and superstition, and preparing to send them out, thoroughly equipped for the conflict of individual responsibility. He is doing faithful, intelligent work, and is entitled to words of good cheer, and plenty of dollars thrown in.

SENTIMENTAL NONSENSE.

Warden Mead of the Auburn prison is in receipt of thousands of letters addressed to the assassin of President McKinley, many of them messages of condolence. Many express packages containing flowers and fruit are also received from Christian societies. Neither the messages nor the packages are delivered to the condemned man, as he is kept in almost absolute seclusion, and not permitted to know what the outside world is doing.

This sort of sentimental nonsense, that finds expression with this class of weak minded people, deserves sharp criticism and condemnation. It amounts to a species of mild insanity that would crown a murderer with the title of hero, the same spirit that prompted similar expression to the condemned anarchists at the time of the Haymarket riot, and that later made a martyr of Debs, when he was paying the penalty for lawlessness in the Woodstock jail. This morbid sentiment amounts to an endorsement of crime, and is an incentive to deeds of violence. While a feeling of pity for misfortune is natural to the human heart, and is not slow to find expression, it is possible for people who are governed by impulse, to allow their better judgment to be lost in an effort to console a criminal that merits the most severe penalty.

The anarchist who commits murder cares more for notoriety than for his own life. The man who is now awaiting death at Auburn, expected to pay for his crime at the hands of a mob. When he accomplished his vile purpose he was satisfied with the fame that he had won. Tokens of condolence, if they were permitted to come to him, are simply expressions of well done, and this sentiment, if at all general, is more of a menace to the nation, than all the anarchists that infest the soil.

It is about time for the American people to cultivate common sense. A wholesome respect for law will never be realized, so long as maudlin sentiment sympathizes with lawlessness. Warden Mead is to be congratulated for exercising common sense. He is entitled to all the flowers and fruit donated by a crank constituency, and will never be held accountable, if he appropriates the outfit to his own use.

PAT CROWE THE DICTATOR.

It is a little amusing, to say the least, to note the spirited correspondence now going on between the city authorities at Omaha, and Pat Crowe, the outlaw and fugitive from justice.

Mr. Cudahy had offered a reward of $25,000 for his arrest and conviction, and this sum was doubled by the city. Pat has studiously kept in hiding, but weary of this life of inactivity, he now comes to the surface, and proposes to surrender for trial. If the reward is withdrawn, and he can be assured by the governor, the sheriff, Mr. Cudahy, and other dignitaries, that he will be accorded an impartial trial. He has been permitted to dictate his own terms, and thus far they have been accepted. What new provisions may be added before November 1st, is not apparent, but Pat has a fertile brain, equal to almost any emergency, and it is more than likely that when acquitted, he will ask to be retired on a stock ranch with an income sufficient to support him.

It is safe to say that his demands will be met, for the city appears to be in a melting mood, and Pat is one of her distinguished citizens. The city of Omaha is a goodly city but she is making a spectacle of herself just now that is anything but creditable. Pat Crowe is an outlaw and has been recognized as such for years. His guilt for various crimes has made him a fugitive for a year. To compromise with him and permit him to make terms, is, to say the least, humiliating. The authorities might better drop the case, than to be a party to that sort of a compromise. After every concession is granted their man is still at large, and his word of honor cannot be of the highest order.

To people not directly interested, the whole thing looks like a farce. The state of Nebraska is equal to almost anything in that line, and she is adding nothing to her credit in attempting to entertain Pat Crowe. The revenue collectors are attempting to unearth moonshiners in the northern part of the state, being impressed with the notion, that the planter is a favorite resort. The average lumber camp, when it comes out of the woods, is noted for a thral that seems to have accumulated all winter. If moonshiners exist in their territory, they have evidently overlooked them.

The rich are not all bad. Henry V. Lucas went through bankruptcy the other day in Chicago. He owed $40,000, with no assets. Mr. Lucas inherited $2,000,000 twenty years ago, but he believed in the distribution of wealth, and was honest enough to practice what he believed. He distributed the most of his money on base ball, and yet he was not a socialist.

The United States treasury today has a balance of $1,190,000,000—the largest balance in the history of this or any other country. Of this amount $300,000,000 is held in trust to meet outstanding liabilities. This vast accumulation speaks volumes for the nation's wealth and prosperity, and should silence for all time the voice of the croaker and malcontent, of whatever political creed.

In the case of Caleb Powers of Kentucky, under arrest for complicity in the Goebel murder, and about to be tried, it appears impossible to get an impartial jury. The twelve men selected are all democrats, their names being drawn from a wheel of democratic construction. Kentucky justice is peculiar, and that is stating it mildly.

One report says the governor is improving rapidly, and another that he is worse than at any time since he was taken sick. His secretary is in usual health, and continues to saw wood with old time vigor. The state is fortunate in having a willing secretary.

Johann Most will spend a year at Sing Sing, as the result of indiscretion. He could not be permitted to contaminate his colleagues. While Sing Sing is not a reformatory, it occasionally turns out a good man.

Acting-Governor Murphy is still at the helm, while the governor and his lieutenant have taken to the woods for recreation. The private secretary is a busy man these days.

Pat Crowe will be crowing while the Omaha authorities will be sitting around like hens, waiting for him to show up. There are no insects on Pat.

PRESS COMMENT.

Appleton Crescent: A soldier's monument should have the figure of a private soldier on a pedestal. The private did all the work with his old musket.

Green Bay Gazette: Secretary Gage says the demand for good officials is greater than the supply. Perhaps Mr. Gage has been reading the Wisconsin state press during the past year.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The Milwaukee News declares that Senator Spooner has promised to make some kind of an announcement soon regarding his candidacy for re-election. If the News keeps on guessing it will strike it right—sometime.

Madison Journal: When you roam about the state you are surprised how many citizens were pleased by the veto of the dog tax bill. The issue is bigger in some sections than railroad taxation. The governor knew life on the farm when he sidetracked that measure.

Milwaukee Journal: While the Journal does not wish to be impertinent, it cannot help suggesting that it does not make so much difference whether penmanship is vertical or otherwise, provided it is so constructed as to be easy to read.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: It is asserted that the Monroe doctrine stands in the way of drastic measures against Turkey. We wonder what sort of a doctrine that will be that will stand between humanity and the wrath of righteous retribution.

Ashland Press: The result of the steel strike should operate as a strike preventative, but news of striking agitation in various quarters indicate that it will not. The average man is bound to put his finger in the paint before he will believe it is wet.

Appleton Post: The way in which he is presiding over the court of inquiry tends to convince one that Admiral Dewey wouldn't make such a poor president after all. The admiral lost his head only temporarily, and he probably wouldn't have lost it at all had he heeded the timely advice that the elder Weller gave to his son, Samuel.

Green Bay Gazette: Notwithstanding President Adams' resignation the state university football team seems to be doing excellent work. A score of 40 to 0 against Beloit indicates that the cause of higher education at our state institution stands in no great jeopardy just at present.

Galesville Republican: A good many people who thought favorably of a primary election law of some kind now realize that it wasn't of as great importance, as the unity of the republican party. The mission of the new Wisconsin Republican League is not the downfall of Governor La Follette, but to harmonize the opposing factions of the party. It is an organization that should receive the endorsement of every republican.

Rice Lake Leader: The half-breeds seem to think that the stalwarts haven't the same rights as they, judging from the tone of their papers. Right or wrong, the republican party in this state must be saved from the crew in power now threatening its destruction, and every republican has a right to protest against his rule or ruin policy that leads to party defeat and ruin.

Eau Claire Leader: Ex-Governor Jones of Alabama was an officer in the Confederate army. Still this fact was not allowed to militate against his nomination for a United States judgeship in that state by President Roosevelt. This is a welcome evidence that sectionalism is dead, and that the fact is fully recognized by a president, who takes this method of showing his willingness to help bury the past.

Council Bluffs Nonpareil: The following "card of thanks" lately appeared in the county correspondence of the Topeka Mail and Breeze: "We wish to thank those who helped out during the last illness of our departed husband and father and gave a hand at the funeral. We expect to sell off all the stock, farm machinery and household goods and move back to Missouri. Everything will go dirt cheap for cash. Date of sale to be printed later. Oh, why should the spirit of mortal be proud? Peace to his ashes. A free lunch will be served at the sale."

A delegation from Milton Junction lodge No. 65, I. O. O. F., came to this city last evening and paid a visit to Janesville City lodge No. 90.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR ANNUAL BANQUET

MERRY TIME IN THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH PARLORS.

An Enjoyable Post-Prandial Program, Presided Over by Mr. W. S. Jeffris—Musical and Literary Entertainment of a Very High Order Was Given.

There was never a more joyous gathering in the parlors of the Congregational church than the one of last evening when the members of the children's choir enjoyed their annual banquet. There were over one hundred happy-hearted children present at the feast and such a merry time as they had. From the time the first youthful guest arrived until the last one departed, there was not a dull moment.

The banquet was announced for six o'clock and having not yet arrived at an age when it is considered fashionable to be late the guests were on hand promptly. The tables were arranged so as to form one continuous table around three sides of the main parlor which was handsomely decorated with autumn leaves. The table looked very tempting with its bouquets of bright colored asters and carnations and such loads of good things to eat that one almost wondered what was going to be done with it all. The speculation vanished, however, when that army of children with their elastic appetites began the attack. If they regarded the good things to eat as an enemy, then the enemy was certainly put to rout in short order.

The banquet was furnished by the ladies of the church who are especially interested in the children's choir and the supper which they provided was quite elaborate. The menu included escalloped oysters, sandwiches, stuffed eggs, potato chips, lemon jelly, pickles, olives, cocoa, sherbet and cake. Several of the ladies of the church assisted by Rev. Robert C. Denison and W. S. Jeffris waited on the children.

After the attack on the banquet tables had been successfully finished and the tables entirely relieved of their heavy burden of edibles, an enjoyable post prandial program was given, W. S. Jeffris presiding. Mr. Jeffris spoke a few words of cordial welcome after which Miss Edna Biason opened the program with a piano solo "Moonlight on the Lake," which she played very prettily.

Denee's lullaby "Sleep Little Baby of Mine" was very sweetly sung by Margery Nicholson, Mrs. Jeffris playing her accompaniment, after which W. B. Tallman spoke on the subject "My Idea of a Boys' Club." He was strongly in favor of such a club and gave several excellent reasons. The rest of the children seemed to agree with him heartily.

One of the best numbers on the program was a piano solo by Clara Belle Sherer, who played "Sparkling Raindrops" exceptionally well. She was given an encore but did not respond.

Alda Bristow recited "The Farmyard Song" prettily, after which Vera Lyntz, who sang a sweet and pleasing voice, sang "Slumber Song" by Newcomb. Mrs. Jeffris played for her.

An original poem by Mabel Charlton followed. It was about the choir and was full of allusions to different members. The hits were greeted with shouts of laughter. The poem ended very prettily. The last stanza was a tribute to Mrs. W. S. Jeffris, the leader of the children's choir and called for three cheers for her. Every child in the room then joined in the cheer: "We cheer—We cheer—Our dear—Mrs. Jeffris!" and over one hundred handkerchiefs fluttered in an accompanying salute.

Rev. Denison was then called on for a few remarks and he gave a very pleasing talk. He told how the children how much help their singing was to the church and how much he and the people appreciated it. The only way to do any kind of work or play is to do it together and he wanted the children to remember that no one else could take their part of the work in the singing. He then told them the story of a lazy mule who was hitched with nine others on a heavy wagon of cotton bales. At first he wouldn't pull his share, and the other mules had a hard time trying to start the load and drag him along too. Finally he made up his mind to work and then the load went along easily for the other mules. Mr. Denison told the children that whenever they wanted to stay away from rehearsal or from church Sunday morning he wished them to remember the mule that wouldn't pull.

Mrs. Jeffris then gave a short talk on the work for the coming year. A lot of new music has been purchased and this year the children will sing both the soprano and alto parts to all songs. The program closed with an orchestra selection "Watch Hill Two-Step." The orchestra included the four Misses Soverhill, with violin, mandolin, banjo and guitar, their mother, Mrs. Sanford Soverhill, at the piano and Miss Mabel Woodbury, banjoist. The selection was splendidly given and the applause was so long continued that the orchestra responded with another selection "Rolling Rube."

The company then adjourned to the Sunday school room where romping games were played for about an hour.

Athena Class Meeting.

At the meeting of the Athena class yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Charles Tarant, the president, and Mrs. Lee Beers were elected delegates to the convention of the Wisconsin State Federation of Women's clubs, which opened a three days' session in Madison today. Mrs. W. H. Judd and Mrs. Q. O. Sutherland were appointed alternates. The members of the class voted to remain in the state federation for the coming year.

CHIEF HOGAN AFTER THE FOUNTAIN PENS

They Were Stolen from Skelly's Book Store and Planted in Chicago

by Ray Marsden.

Chief of Police Hogan left this morning at 10:10 for Chicago to get the bundle of fountain pens stolen from Skelly's book store by Ray Marsden and planted by him in Chicago.

It was the intention of the chief to take the young man with him, so he drove down to the jail this morning with a carriage after him. When he arrived there he found that the boy had broken out with a red rash all over his breast and legs which looked like smallpox. He was not feeling well last night so Dr. Pember was called to look after him. An examination convinced the doctor that Marsden either had the smallpox or something very much like it. He examined him again this morning and found the rash had spread considerably, but he was not dead sure it was smallpox.

Marsden declares he does not feel sick and wanted to go with Hogan. Dr. Pember stated that he would not be able to tell for certain inside of twenty-four hours whether or not it was smallpox and Chief Hogan decided not to take any chances and left him in the lock up.

The witness said that the fleet under Commodore Schley never had been withdrawn from Santiago to a distance out at sea at night. As a rule the ships were farther inside at night than during the day. The ships never went more farther off than six miles, and on one occasion the colliders had been out twenty-five miles away.

The court asked a number of questions of the witness.

Q. Now, the court. Were you present when Captain Watson delivered dispatch to Commodore Schley on San Diego?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, the court. As the gangway, but whether he got the dispatches to the commodore then I cannot say.

Q. Now, the court. When you heard those dispatches read or read them yourself, please state their purport.

A. The dispatch he brought I think contained the most positive information that I got that the enemy were in San Diego. I remember the dispatch as being the first information of any kind that we had had that the enemy were in San Diego.

Q. Now, the court. I could indicate the dispatch to you.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, the court. You know whether the Brooklyn crossed the bow of the Texas?

A. I do not.

Q. Now, the court. Did the vessels close in on each other in obedience to the signal?

THE DIVORCE CANON FAILS

Proposed Change Rejected by House of Deputies.

GOES OVER THREE YEARS.

An Important Day's Work in the Episcopal Convention at San Francisco—Fight on Proposed Marriage Law a Feature of the Session.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 16.—In the triennial Episcopal convention the House of Deputies rejected the proposed marriage and divorce canons in spite of its adoption by the House of Bishops. Thus ends the greatest fight in the convention, for three years at least. The canon agreed upon by the Bishops virtually forbade the remarriage of a divorced person by a priest of the church. This had been adopted by a yeas and nays vote in committee of the whole of the House of Deputies, but when the subject came up for final action, the entire canon was rejected. The House of Deputies also passed an amendment to article 10 of the constitution, permitting modified forms of worship, which in spirit is similar to the famous Huntington amendment recently defeated. The Bishops have yet to act before the amendment can become part of the constitution. The Rev. Cameron Mann of Kansas City was nominated to be Missionary Bishop of North Dakota in the place of the Rev. Dr. Pierce, who failed of election in the House of Deputies.

Fight on Divorce Canon.

The closing fight over the proposed marriage and divorce canon was the feature of the day's session, as it was of the entire convention. When the proposed canon came up for final action a vote was reached on the adoption of the first three sections of canon 36 on the solemnization of matrimony and they were carried by a large majority. There was, however, little controversy over that section. The fight was over section 4, which would forbid the remarriage of persons divorced for any cause not existing before their former marriage. This section was defeated by a small majority. The vote was as follows: Clerical—Yeas 30; nays, 19; divided, 10. Lay—Yeas 15; nays, 24; divided, 9.

Some Church Statistics.

The Committee on the State of the Church presented its report, which included the following statements: The number of confirmations during the three years was 121,345, which was, however, 3,896 fewer than in the preceding period; the number of baptisms also was 13,832 less. There had been a total revenue from all sources of $45,690,715, an increase of about $6,000,000. The contributions for foreign missions had increased $228,000 and for diocesan missions $327,000.

Roosevelt Favors the Court Martial.

Washington, Oct. 16.—It is understood that the policy of President McKinley in setting aside the verdicts of courts martial will not be followed by President Roosevelt. He is said to have informed a party of interested persons that he was a firm believer in the efficiency of the court martial and that he did not believe the verdicts as a rule should be interfered with. President McKinley made a record for great leniency in this respect.

Lonely Homes

A home is never complete without children. Yet many homes are childless. Many wives are desolate for the lack of a child to love. Their lives are aimless—void of the high motives of motherhood. While barrenness is causing incalculable sadness and sorrow, it exists in most cases on account of some little female trouble, which Wine of Cardui would speedily set right. This pure Wine regulates the disordered female organs by building up the worn out nerves and regulating the menstrual flow. It restores the fallen womb to its proper place. By strengthening the generative organs, it makes pregnancy possible where barrenness exists. You can depend on

WINE OF CARDUI

Suffering women all over the land have been depending on it for seventy-five years. No more convincing proof can be given than the testimony of Mrs. Benson, who is only one of thousands of women to whom Wine of Cardui has brought a permanent cure. Many cases of miscarriage—that trouble which robs mothers of their hopes—have been avoided by timely use of the Wine. You are asked to try Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, its companion medicine. Nine out of ten cases of female trouble, barrenness included, yield to them. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Vandervoort, Ark., April 2, 1900.

Last May I had a miscarriage, which was followed by flooding. I read your Almanac and my husband got me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and it stopped my flooding and restored my fallen womb to its place. Now I am cured after taking three bottles and have another to take which I got this morning. I am expecting to become a mother and Wine of Cardui will be my doctor.

S'SH SLEEP AT LAST

LAXAKOLA DOES IT

NO ONE BUT A MOTHER can appreciate the benefit that sound, refreshing sleep gives to an ailing, teething, feverish, colicky, fretful infant. Almost distracted by its constant crying, and worn out with weary, anxious care and watching, she tries everything possible to obtain even relief for the little sufferer.

With what comfort and delight she sees her little one drop off into a deep peaceful health-giving slumber, after its little clogged bowels are cleared of their poisonous burden by a single dose of Laxakola, the great tonic laxative and mother's remedy.

Laxakola is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative, and contains valuable tonic properties which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, which will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as it neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. LAXAKOLA will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature, and induce sleep. For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongue, or any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach it is invaluable.

Laxakola, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, liquid laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other remedy gives so much for the money. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to THE LAXAKOLA CO., 132 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 350 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

GOOD THINGS FROM A BISHOP.

"Men get brains out of their struggle for bread."
"A man goes to hell or to heaven from the level of his heart."
"A whining preacher is no better than a whining something else."
"What shall a minister preach? Anything a sinner needs to know."
"A head stuffed full of education doesn't make a preacher fit to take a charge."
"Education means to a preacher the ability to stand on his feet and think for himself."
"Don't tinker with the discipline of the Methodist church until you are a member of the general conference. Keep it."
"Sanctification is taking the devil out of a man. I have known some men who professed to be holy who were holy terrors."
"If the preacher doesn't half believe the things he preaches men will say 'I'll quit going to church and save my money.'"
"I fear that the present generation of preachers is not doing as well with their equipment as their fathers did with their equipment."
"It is the province of the theological schools to make christian preachers. I like theological schools, but I think they need one more chair. If I wasn't so poor (and I thank God I am), or if I had some rich charitably disposed friend, I should establish it myself, and call it the chair of common sense."
"It has always been important to have the right kind of men, and it has never been more so than this morning. I have been in annual conferences since 1859 and never in all that time have the churches been more intense in asking for men. They want christian men and christian preachers."—Bishop Joyce in His Address to the Candidates for the Ministry at the Methodist Episcopal Conference at Ripon.—Oshkosh Northwestern.

CURED OF ASTHMA.

After 35 Years of Suffering. It will be gratifying to Asthmatic readers to learn that an absolute cure has at last been discovered by Dr. Rudolph Schiffman. That the remedy is an effectual one cannot be doubted after perusal of such testimony as that of C. W. Van Antwerp, Fulton, N. Y., who says:—"Your remedy, (Schiffman's Asthma Cure) is the best I ever used. I bought a package of our druggist and tried it and one box entirely cured me of asthma, and I have not had it since. I can now go to bed and sleep all night with perfect comfort, which I have not done before for thirty-five years and I thank you for the health that I now enjoy. I hope that you will publish this letter, that others may learn of it wonderful virtue."

Tribute to Rev. A. C. Kempton. As a tribute of remembrance of the late Rev. A. C. Kempton, who was state president of the Wisconsin Christian Endeavor society at the time of his death, Mrs. Kempton has been made a member of the state official board. Although Mrs. Kempton's home is now in Eau Claire, she serves on the board as a representative of the Baptist church of this city. The courtesy is one which will be deeply appreciated by Mrs. Kempton, because it was prompted by remembrance of her husband. The three churches having Christian Endeavor Societies are now represented on the state board, the Congregation church by A. E. Matheson, who is president of the state society, the Presbyterian church by Miss Fanny Jackson, the state secretary and the Baptist church by Mrs. Kempton.
